PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Everybody Move provides parents/caregivers and children with a one-hour, uninterrupted class in movement and music. Class begins with a participatory “circle-time” featuring songs (accompanied by an autoharp), rhythm instruments, fingerplays, scarves, hoops, puppets and other props which support developmentally appropriate learning. Circle-time is followed by “free-play-time” which offers participants the opportunity to explore the space and play on ramps, soft climbing shapes and tunnels in a safe environment. Each class ends with a circle-game, freeze-dance and juice-time.

OTHER CLASSES

Creative Movement

Creative Movement (boys and girls) enjoy movement and imagination as they learn the early basics of dancing and moving through space without parents.

Siblings

Everybody Move offers families an opportunity to sing and dance together. The class caters to a diverse age range, with younger children modeling after their older siblings. *(Fee for each child.)

“We have found that experience is the chief architect of the brain. Experiences that fill a baby’s first days, months and years have a decisive impact on the structure of a child’s brain and their future intellectual, social and emotional abilities.”

—Bruce Perry, M.D., Ph.D.
Senior Fellow, CIVITAS Initiative,
Baylor College of Medicine
